SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Monday evening at Temple hall Mr. and Mrs. Max Kohn who but a few weeks since removed to Lincoln from Nebraska City, were tendered a very pleasant and cordial reception by Mr. L. Wessel, Jr., their nephew. There were upwards of one hundred people present by invitation, and the occasion was one of unrivalled brilliance and success. Guests were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Kohn in the large reception room, passing thence directly into the dancing hall. In the early part of the evening delightful operatic selections were rendered by the Musical Union orchestra, under the incomparable leadership of Harry Irvine. Shortly after nine o'clock the grand march was announced, which quickly formed, was led by Mr. Wessel and Miss Pauline Goldsmith. After the promenade the company was ranged in two rows running the full length of the hall and the host, mounting the platform, stated in a few aptly chosen words, that the reception, unknown to the guests present, was a celebration of the eighteenth anniversary of the wedding of his uncle and aunt, when he thereupon presented them with a very handsome silver water service, appropriately inscribed. The latter as well as the guests were greatly surprised by this incident, wholly unlooked for, which made it the more enjoyable. A magnificent basket of flowers was also presented by the ladies. Soon the tuneful air "Ever and Ever Mine," filled the floor with merry dancers, marking the commencement of a highly entertaining programme. Selections from "The Gondoliers," "Paul Jones," and other popular operas were given during the evening. Delicious refreshments were served in the ante-room by Brown. The reception was a rare compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Kohn who begin their residence in Lincoln very auspiciously at 1111 H street in the Lyman stone terrace. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames S. Schwab, I. Brucks, D. Wise, A. Katzenstein, Sr., Sam Wessel, H. Goldsmith, J. Steinberg, I. Friend, S. Pol-wosky, Ed. Bignell, H. W. Brown, M. Ackerman, Louis Mayer, Willie Meyer, Louis Meyer, Simon Mayer, A. C. Ziemer, S. Herschler, M. A. Newmark, J. J. McCullough, S. Seligson, L. Barr and Charles West; Misses Pauline Goldsmith, Annie Barr, Jessie Barr, Sarah Schwab, Ida Friend, Helen and Ernestine Friend of Atchison, Rosa Frank, Nettie and Bertha Seligson, Montie and Lizzie Buford, Kate Stein of St. Joseph, and Maude Smith; Messrs. M. Strauss of Des Moines, Mayor Graham, A. Ksowsky, L. Ksowsky, Sol Oppenheimer, M. Wolfe of Hildreth, Neb., Joe Oppenheimer, E. Hirsch, Reuben Goldsmith, Jake Oppenheimer, M. Oppenheimer, Ed. Wessel of Omaha, Julius Wessel of Nebraska City, Edgar Wessel, Charles Mayer, Henry Mayer, C. D. Mullen, Frank Mullen of New York, Ed. Lowman, W. Morton Smith, Paul Bouwit, Charles Gunnison, Alfred Eiler, Sam Rich, Ed. Friend, Julius Smith of New York, Mark Buford and Oscar Callahan.

Mr. Mark H. Tilton and Miss Inez Dorris were united in marriage Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. W. G. Miller officiating. The wedding was a very quiet one only relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. Tilton left for the east in the evening. After February 19 they will be at home at 621 South Fourteenth street. The groom is president and manager of the Wisconsin Furniture Company, enjoys an enviable reputation as a business man, and socially, is very generally esteemed. The bride's many graceful accomplishments have won for her a prominent social position. The young people were very ardent, as but few people had an inkling of the approaching nuptials.

The Catholic Young Men's Lyceum club elected its officers at an enthusiastic meeting held in Lyceum hall, Thursday evening. They are as follows: James J. Condon, president; Rev. Denis Fitzgerald, secretary, and E. Butler, treasurer. This is the organization under whose auspices Rt. Rev. Bishop Keane of Washington, D. C., lectured two weeks ago to our citizens. A well regulated club room, library and literary culture will be the principal feature of the organization.

Thursday evening a pleasant surprise was inaugurated on Miss Goldsmith of Eighteenth street by a company of over forty friends. High life and a toothsome repast was duly enjoyed, the whole affording a most delightful entertainment. A beautiful opera glass was presented the surprised hostess and other presents quite valuable and handsome were left as tokens of the affair, which marked an anniversary birthday of the lady.

The following young people of Bethany Heights are spending the holidays abroad: Miss May Drummond, at Arapahoe; Miss Atwater, at Weeping Water; Miss Dillon, at McCook; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barrow, at Burlington, Iowa. The new band will give its first concert Christmas night at the Christmas tree.

A subscription party will be given at Temple hall Tuesday evening, December 30. It is expected that in the neighborhood of thirty couples will be present. It will include a large number of the younger members of the Pleasant Hour club.

Stratford R. Hewitt, son of Rev. John Hewitt, entertained a number of his young friends at the family residence, 1223 J street, last evening, the occasion being the thirteenth anniversary of his birth.

Mr. Whitney Jones and Miss Esther Brown were married Thursday. Rev. L. W. Terry officiating. The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for the east.

For some months there has been considerable talk in railroad circles of a new train on the Burlington & Missouri between Lincoln and Omaha. This talk has finally resolved into fact, and on Monday the "Lincoln and Omaha Limited" will make its first run. This new train will run daily, except Sunday, and will be, without exception, the finest train in this part of the country. It will leave Lincoln at 10:15 A. M., arriving in Omaha at 11:30, making the run in seventy-five minutes, and making only one stop—at Ashland. Returning it will leave Omaha at 5 P. M., reaching Lincoln at 6:30. On the return trip stops will be made at the three principal stations. New and magnificent parlor coaches have been ordered and when these are received, which will be in a few days, the equipment of the train will be unsurpassed. None but drawing room coaches will be used. The extra charge will be twenty-five cents each way. Temporarily chair cars will be run.

Corinne Next Week.

"Carmen," as done by the Kimball Opera Comique and Burlesque company, is no way similar to the production of "Carmen Up to Date," now being presented by the London Gaiety company at their theatre on the other side. It is an entirely original construction conceived by Mrs. Jennie Kimball, who, feeling that Carmen had never had a good opportunity to display her ability, and recognizing in her temperament and appearance the advantages which she would be possessed in assuming the role of Carmen, determined to elaborately produce a burlesque of the opera. The production was so successful that it became quite the craze in New York. This brilliant little artist will appear with the sixty artists of the Kimball opera comique and burlesque company in her great success, Carmen, at Funke's opera house next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Grand matinees will be given Thursday (Christmas), and Saturday afternoons.

Bald heads are too many when they may be covered with a luxuriant growth of hair by using the best of all restorers, Hall's Hair Renewer.

Briscoe, the shoe man, in the Exposition, has been having a great run in those elegant ladies' dress slippers mentioned in last week's COURIER. There is still a complete assortment left and should you desire something nice for a Christmas present, they are exactly what you want. Party slippers for both ladies and gentlemen. Just take a look at them. Then Briscoe, the shoe man, has a larger stock than ever of ladies' and men's fine shoes. These are of standard make, stylish and durable, and guaranteed to fit—the finest foot wear in the city. Before buying elsewhere call on Briscoe.
